South Kanara Collector's Office,
Mangalore, 9th March 1940.

From

M.V.Subrahmanyam, Esq., M.A., I.C.S.,
Collector of South Kanara.

The Secretary to the Board,
Land Revenue & Irrigation,
Madras.

Sir,

Alienation - Land - Coondapoor Taluk - Basroor village - S.No.151/2A2 - Breach of condition - extension of time - Grant - Recommended.

S.No.151/2A2 of Basrur village, Coondapoor Taluk, measuring 2.00 acres, was alienated in favour of the Basroor Hindu Association for use as the site of a school, play-ground and garden in Board's Proceedings Mis.No.593, dated 15.2.1937. One of the conditions of the grant was that the Association should construct the school building and lay out a garden and play ground within a period of two years from the date of the grant. It is reported that the plot contains only the school building and that the work of laying out the play ground and garden has not yet been commenced. The Manager of the school requests extension of time till the end of December 1940 to lay out a garden and play ground. The extension of time till the end of December 1940 may be granted.

For Collector.
